TWEED'S DILEMMA.

The Chief of the Ring Robbers Fairly Cornered.

Orders of Arrest Granted by Judge Learned, of Albany.

Tweed, Ingersoll, Garvey and Woodward Included in the Papers.

The Accused to be Taken Into Custody Today.

A Million Dollars' Worth of Real Estate Transferred by Tweed Yesterday.

Intense Excitement Among all Classes Throughout the City.

The publication in yesterday's journals of the Broadway Bank disclosures created the wildest commotion in the City. The plundered tax-payers at last saw spread before them the overwhelming evidence that their money had been shared by thieves. The TIMES has all along told them that TWEED and his gang were robbers, and yesterday it proved it. The damning evidence against TWEED, the ringleader of the band, was nowhere disputed, and loud were the demands that went up for the speedy arrest and punishment of the wrong-doers.

Yesterday morning application was made to Judge LEARNED, at the Chambers of the Supreme Court, in Albany, for an order of arrest against WILLIAM M. TWEED, ARTHUR J. GARVEY, JAMES H. INGERSOLL and ELBERT A. WOODWARD. The petition was founded upon the affidavit of SAMUEL J. TILDEN, already published, and upon a complaint setting forth the fraudulent character of the claims audited by the Board of Audit, their clearly fictitious and the fact, shown by the investigation of the Broadway Bank examiners, that these four men had pocketed the money. The complaints demands judgment against the defendants for over six millions of dollars.

Judge LEARNED granted the order of arrest, holding each thief to bail in the sum of $1,000,000.

Today TWEED will be arrested. The others have stalked away, leaving but one to satisfy an outraged people's clamoring for their rights, and that one, the worst of all, will be taken by a Deputy Sheriff today, on the proven charge of downright stealing. TWEED remained at the Department of Public Works during the greater part of the day. Delegations from political associations and delegations of roughs swarmed about the corridors and besieged the door leading to the private office. But few were admitted, and the rest remained in the damp, dingy, chilly hall-way that reeked with unsavory odors, and there whiled away the heavy time with objurgations and curses against the men who threaten the downfall of their chief. White-coated roughs ornamented with disordered hats, lounged around the staircases, apparently waiting only for orders. Anxious men hurried in and out, or stood earnestly conversing in half-whispers upon the troubles that threatened their master. A few elicited satisfaction and incredulity when the subject of arrest was broached, while others, too accustomed to it to regard it as a disaster, smiled ghastly smiles of scorn.

"Which arrest for Rum?" exclaimed one of the waiters attached to the Department. "You don't know him;" and he laughed at the idea. The Committee of Seventy and every one who have been instrumental in the exposure of TWEED came in for their share and were subjected to the vilest abuse.

During the afternoon Mr. JOHN GRAHAM appeared, and was immediately ushered into the presence of TWEED. For a long time they were closeted together patching and plastering up a defense, trying to find one that bore even the appearance of soundness. When the information that the Attorney-General had empowered able and upright men to represent him in this City was given out, TWEED immediately sought advice, and concluded to "protest" against the action as unconstitutional. But the mine has been sprung too quickly for him, and he is now reduced to the necessity of defending himself against the people to his so long oppressed. He dare not deny the accusations against him; the proof stares him in the face; and he turns wildly from one subterfuge to another. At one instant he claims that the money deposited to his credit in the Broadway Bank was merely the repayment of moneys advanced by him to GARVEY, INGERSOLL and WOODWARD, and the next throws all the blame upon the old Board of Audit and complacently announces that he is pleased with the prospect because it will now give him an opportunity to vindicate himself.

Mr. TWEED has no defense to the charges brought against him. He will talk and protest and put forth specious pleas until after election. If he shall gain that he will consider himself invulnerable, and with that object in view he and his satraps, HALL and SWEENY, are straining every nerve.

Tweed Disposing of His Property.

It is a well-known fact that Wm. M. TWEED has been busily engaged during the past few weeks in slyly making away all of his personal effects and real estate. His stocks have nearly all been sold or transferred to other parties in trust, and nearly all of his houses have been quietly turned over to those who will hold them safely. Within a few days past it is said that he has transferred upward of four millions dollars' worth of real estate, and yesterday he disposed of property worth $200,000 more, including his magnificent dwelling on Fifth-avenue. One deed recorded yesterday is to RICHARD M. TWEED, (his son,) conveying twenty-two acres, two roods and ten and one-half perches, at Fort Washington. The deed was executed by GEORGE P. DENNISTON, of No. 220 Broadway, is dated Aug. 15, 1871, and is acknowledged before WILLIAM M. TWEED, Jr. Consideration $250,000.

The second deed is from RICHARD M. TWEED, conveying the same property to the Potter & Stymus Manufacturing Company, of which the "Boss" is said to be the "Company."

The third deed is from WILLIAM M. TWEED to RICHARD M. TWEED, dated Aug. 16, 1871, and conveys a plot of ground on the northerly side of West Fifty-ninth-street, 24 feet 8 inches west of the "Circle," consideration $200,000; acknowledged before WM. M. TWEED, Jr.

The fourth deed is from WILLIAM M. TWEED to RICHARD M. TWEED, dated Aug. 16, 1871, conveys one plot of ground on the south-east corner of West Forty-third-street and Fifth-avenue; consideration $275,000. This deed is also dated on the 16th of August, 1871, and acknowledged before WM. M. TWEED, Jr. This is TWEED's private residence. The "Boss" is in desperate haste to get everything out of the way, and when he has done so will doubtless snap his fingers in the faces of his victims and defy them to recover. He doesn't know the trap that is being laid for him, however, as he would not speak so confidently, as he does. There is something warm in store for him before he gets done with this business.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

Spontaneous Enthusiasm Everywhere—Words of Twaddle from Political Friends.

Although BILL TWEED was smart enough to cover up his tracks, yet the covering process don't show it," said one Tammany man to another, yesterday. "Brann has got the best of him right, and TWEED is cornered. I tell you, O'CONOR is goin to catch him.

The gossip whose views upon the disclosures of yesterday are thought worthy to be reported, as an index of a class of popular opinion, were standing on the basement floor of the County Court-house. All wise and knowledge, were Democrats of influence in the councils of Tammany Hall, and one holds an important office by which he is the responsible chief of police. "It is a bad thing for TWEED," said the last one referred to. "I don't know how he is going to get out of it. He is wandering and fast losing his best friends. Every man that I have talked to today shrugs his shoulders and says he don't know what the Boss is going to do about it. Have you seen TWEED today?" he added, addressing one of his companions.

"Yes, I saw him a little while ago," was the answer. "He appeared to be somewhat shaken, but he said he felt all right—that's at all worried. But there wasn't anything else for him to say."

"I think he is in a pretty pall box. They will have to get quarters ready for him at Ludlow-street Jail. They say he is to be arrested today."

"The jailers will have a good boarder," said another.

"Yes," replied the previous speaker. "He'll have plenty of money to spend. The jailers will have an opportunity to make him fork over some of the appropriations made by the Board of Apportionment for the benefit of the jail, and which he, with the others, have pocketed themselves."

"They ought to have the whole Board of Appointment over there," said another.

"Well, they may have them; there is no telling the way things are going now," said another. "Hello, there's the Controller, MIKE TUOMEY and Judge CARDOZO," he remarked, as these gentlemen passed by engaged in earnest conversation, and he added: "Here comes Ex-Sheriff O'BRIEN, shaking hands with everybody."

As Mr. O'BRIEN disappeared in the direction of Sheriff BRENNAN'S office, he remarked: "O'BRIEN is pretty active. He'll make things very lively for BRADLEY in his district.

"What do you think of TWEED's chances?" chimed in the TIMES reporter.

"Oh, he will go to Albany. It is too late to make a nomination strong enough to beat him in his district now," was the answer.

During these remarks crowds of politicians were hurrying by, and groups like this one were standing together conversing earnestly and in low tones. The damning array of evidence put forth in the big black type in the TIMES would admit of no argument. There it was, furnished by a Democratic leader of unimpeachable integrity, and the prosecution vigorously pushed by the Democratic State Attorney.

The reporter left the crowd and drifted into Sheriff BRENNAN'S office. "What do you think of the denunciation?" was asked by one of the principal hangers-on, who is familiar with the views of the Sheriff.

"Bad, sir, bad for TWEED. I don't know what he is going to do about it," was answered.

"What will the Sheriff do under the circumstances?" said the reporter.

"Sheriff BRENNAN, Sir, can't keep company with such men, Sir; that's my opinion."

REPORTER—Do you think he will talk on the matter—express any opinion today?"

OFFICIAL—He'll talk, but I don't think he will express an opinion. Wait until to-morrow. There will be something of importance to-morrow. Come in and see me.

REPORTER—Do you think TWEED will run in his district for Senator?

OFFICIAL—He'll run, I suppose. There is no time now to make another nomination, but there is some talk of putting up a man against him. TWEED expected to get a tremendous majority, but if will be a small one now, you can rest assured. If he is elected, I don't see how he is going to take his seat, while being tried for criminal offenses. Do you?

The reporter confessed his inability to see how it could be done, and expressed his amazement at the audacity of TWEED in keeping his name before the public for their suffrages. The foregoing is a reflex of what intelligent Democrats, to whom but a short time ago TWEED's name was a tower of strength, felt yesterday, after reading the paper. Among the ignorant and vicious, and those thoroughly corrupted by the money and favors which TWEED has lavishly showered upon them, there was a little show of defiance, and such as these asserted that "Boss" TWEED was smart enough to escape the consequences of his crimes, and that he, to use their slang, would "give them all the go-by," and rule Tammany Hall and New-York, in spite of itself.

"Well," said a respectable citizen, "I guess we'll have justice at last."

"It looks like it," said another. On the streets, in the cars, in the hotels and restaurants the subject was discussed, and even the trial of ROSENZWEIG was forgotten in the interest which centred about the case of the People vs. Wm. M. TWEED. Even the little gamins in the street paused about to find cause with which if they thought TWEED would be sent to Sing Sing. One of these little Arabs said: "he didn't believe TWEED would be arrested, he'd get off."

Should he escape, this boy, like many others, may be encouraged to practice theft on smaller scale, with the hope of going unpunished, too. Men, upon getting into the street-cars, sank into their seats, and immediately became absorbed in reading the papers. Conversation in some of the cars became general, and expressions of gratification that the frauds had been in part traced to one of the principal offenders, were frequent. It was the same on the ferry-boats. Among the Germans the feeling was one of intense satisfaction. "It looks now," said a German to the TIMES reporter, "as though we were reaching the end." Everywhere WM. M. TWEED's guilt was urged and admitted, and yet, upon the authority of those who know him best, he is determined to run for State Senator, and huge swinging banners streak across the streets in the seventh ward, one of them in the Bowery, to the disgust of honest Germans passing under it, with a portrait of the arch Ring thief, and advertising him as a candidate for Senator of the Seventh District. The false rumors of TWEED's arrest last evening flew like wild-fire to all parts of the City, increasing the disgust of the dishonest and the gratification of men of honor.

The Arrest of Twenty Thousand of the Community.

Wild rumors were floating around town late since as to what had been done with the pulprit TWEED. Up-town it was reported that he had been arrested and safely lodged in Ludlow-street Jail, not being able to obtain the required amount of bail. Some who retailed the story to open-eared listeners placed the bail demanded at $1,000,000, and others at $2,000,000.

"That is too much bail to demand," said one.

"Too much!" said another; "I would like to see it placed so high that there would be no possibility of his getting it," he added, answering his own question.

"It does me good," said a man in front of Thomas' saloon on Broadway, "to see the man brought to justice. Why, there was a poor man here the other day, sent up on the Island for stealing three hams from a bake-shop. Shall this man who is millions in wealth that he has stolen from the City go scot free, while the hungry wretch is punished?"

Considerable excitement prevailed in the Fifth-avenue Hotel and other of the large caravanseries at the rumored arrest, and our reporter, who visited the head-quarters of the Committee of Elections of the Committee of Seventy, the Executive Committee of the Young Men's Political Reform Association, and several other head-quarters, was eagerly questioned about the truth of the report. These rumors, however, as will such elsewhere, have at present slight foundation.

Around the City Hall.

The figures published in the TIMES yesterday were the cause of considerable conversation around the Hall yesterday morning. The general conclusion arrived at was that WM. M. TWEED and A. J. WOODWARD had been doing a large and very profitable business, and that the robberies of the City Treasury had at last been brought home to the guilty parties, or, at any rate, to some of them. The Mayor was invisible yesterday, arriving late at his office, and leaving after reading his letters. There was some talk, too, yesterday, in regard to Mr. HALL, and some strong language was uttered as to his culpability in permitting the accounts laid before the Board of Audit to be passed on and approved by subordinates, of the untrustworthy character of one of whom, at least, he had full knowledge. Various surmises were indulged in as to when TWEED would be arrested, and several persons stationed themselves near to the Department of Public Works, expecting to see the "Boss" brought out by a policeman, or a Sheriff's officer, at least. The "Boss," however, was elected the whole morning with his lawyer, Mr. BARTLETT, and about noon a messenger was dispatched for Mr. JOHN GRAHAM, who arrived in hot haste and had a long and doubtless very interesting conversation with his client.

THE TELL-TALE FIGURES.

Analysis of the Details Appearing Published Yesterday—The Figures Grouped for the Benefit of the Reader.

The crowded condition of our columns yesterday prevented us from giving an analysis of the full figures contained in our supplement. The facts concerning the identification of the parties receiving the proceeds of warrants drawn for allowances made by the special Board of Audit, under section 4 of the County Tax Levy of 1870, are now presented in brief.

The figures appended to the affidavit of Mr. TILDEN prove that on the 6th of May, 1870, four warrants, amounting, to a total of $935,812.97, were drawn upon the Broadway Bank. The bank entries of the same day show that INGERSOLL & Co. deposited $60,027.12, being the amount of two checks indorsed by them, and immediately drew another check to the order of A. A. WOODWARD for $41,824.85, who deposited it to his own account. At the same time ANDREW J. GARVEY deposited $40,027.97, and then drew a check payable to WOODWARD'S order for $60,876.44, which the latter at once deposited to his own account. The warrant of KEYSER & Co. for $92,596.06, indorsed with the initials "E. A. W." in lead pencil, was also deposited to WOODWARD'S credit.

The next day, May 7, 1870, four warrants, indorsed by INGERSOLL & Co., and amounting to $129,586 92, were drawn on the Broadway Bank. Checks were drawn from that amount by INGERSOLL, in favor of WOODWARD, for $75,202 47, which he at once deposited, and then drew a check for $25,773 05. The latter was immediately deposited by WM. M. TWEED.

On the 13th of May, two warrants were drawn on the same bank and indorsed by INGERSOLL & CO. The total amount, $138,261 22, INGERSOLL deposited, and then drew a check for $24,488 76, which was placed to WOODWARD'S credit. The latter then drew a check for $6,229 60, which was deposited to the account of WM. M. TWEED.

On the 14th of May, three warrants were drawn on the same bank. Two of these were in favor of A. J. GARVEY, and amounting to $60,611 77, he deposited, and drew a check to WOODWARD'S order for $59,127 95. This, with a check of KEYSER & Co., indorsed in lead pencil initials "E. A. W.," for $21,887 26, making a total of $86,015 40, WOODWARD deposited, and then drew a check for $29,404 21, which was added to the bank account of WM. M. TWEED.

On the 21st of May nine warrants were drawn on the same bank. Of these, $264,178 87 was deposited by INGERSOLL & Co., who drew checks for $127,731 15, which were placed to WOODWARD'S credit. A. J. GARVEY deposited $133,730 68, and drew a check in favor of WOODWARD for $68,316 19, which was deposited to the latter's account, which amounted to a total of $214,047 34. Of this day's doings, the share of Mr. TWEED seems to have been $30,966 60. There is no account of the disposition of the remainder. Of the five warrants drawn on the same bank on the 23d of May, in favor of KEYSER & Co. and A. HALL, Jr., and indorsed "E. A. W." in pencil, WOODWARD deposited all, $140,660 17, and drew a check for $35,021 87, which went into Mr. TWEED'S bank account.

On the 27th of May two warrants were drawn on the same bank amounting to $166,791 61. Of this total WOODWARD received from INGERSOLL $54,140 90, and from GARVEY $26,976 80—in all $81,117 10. Mr. TWEED received $9,924 80.

On May 29 six warrants were drawn upon the same bank for $247,231 61. Of this, INGERSOLL deposited $196,131 96, of which WOODWARD received $69,000 61. A. J. GARVEY deposited $43,100 81, and paid WOODWARD $20,000 64, making the total for the latter $140,084 85. Mr. TWEED received $25,013 97. The remainder is not accounted for.

On the 30th of May three warrants were drawn, amounting to $117,622 15. This was divided thus: WOODWARD received from INGERSOLL $25,451 60, and from GARVEY $27,000 24. WOODWARD'S own check, drawn for $65,515 70, adds up his share to $150,977 13. Mr. TWEED received $26,538 75.

On the 2d of June eight warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $154,591 79, of which WOODWARD received $73,574 10; A. J. GARVEY deposited $125,550 28, and paid WOODWARD $62,062 18. On the 5th of June SIXTEEN warrants were drawn. INGERSOLL deposited $261,691 42, and gave WOODWARD $96,779 24. GARVEY deposited $168,-371 12, and paid WOODWARD $70,000 64, and all other warrants, amounting to $281,230 11, thus making his share $237,243 75. Mr. TWEED'S portion was $56,452 26.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The attendance at the Exchange yesterday, Oct. 26, was very large, and the proceedings were of special interest, particularly the sale exhibited by ADRIAN H. MULLER, P. R. WISEMAN & Co. who, by order of the executors of LOUISA CHESEBROUGH, deceased, disposed of an extensive line of City property, located on Washington Heights, and on Broadway adjoining. In all thirty-five lots of land, containing front each on twenty-five City lots each, were sold together with Broadway lots to the number of thirty-five each, in size as by about 100x100. All the property was sold to bona-fide bidders, and at really good prices. The results as a whole, may be viewed as quite encouraging, and one which, in the existing dullness of the market, cannot fail to exert a healthy influence upon real estate generally. Full details of the sale will be found below, with the approximate results realized, and purchasers' names noted.

In addition to the above A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co., at public auction, offered for sale sixteen lots, located at New-Brighton, Staten Island, eight each fronting respectively on Bay View place and Jay street. Two of these were sold for $100 each to JOHN C. BAILEY, and the remainder were withdrawn. Also, a valuable country seat offered for sale, the property known as "Hillside," in Fordham, Town of Westchester, formerly occupied by C. G. GUNNISON, Esq., as a country residence, with about ten acres of land. No response being received during recess, no sale was effected.

Owing to the inclement state of the weather, the auction sales advertised for yesterday were all adjourned, as follows: Sale at Norwood, E. J., A. D. MULLICK, Jr., & Bro., auctioneers; adjourned until Monday next. Sale at Scotch Plains, N. J., JOHNSON & MILLER, auctioneers, adjourned until Tuesday of next week; and sale at Alturas, Rockland County, N. Y., A. E. ORDE, auctioneer, postponed to a day which will be duly announced.

Sales at the Exchange, of several locations of City property, of some importance, will take place to-day, as reported by JAMES M. MILLER and JOSEPH MCGUIRE, as auctioneers. The following is a summary of the business conducted at the Exchange yesterday:

Which pertaining to Capitol Counsel, and we recommend them as safe and most remunerative. The popularity of these Bonds is partly due to the fact that the interest is not paid out of capital, as has been done by many other Railroad enterprises. The Rondout and Oswego Railroad Company are doing a large business, and the earnings for the year 1871 already amount to 10 per cent on all the Bonds to be issued. Fifty additional cars are in operation, and the remaining fifty miles will be opened next October. It passes through a rich agricultural district, and will command from railroad facilities its local traffic in and will be good; while its connections will give it a large through business with the West. The Railroad connects Lake Navigation on the Hudson. The merchants of the road in this City allows its true condition to be examined and thoroughly known by the bondholder. By procuring these Bonds in exchange for Five-Twenties, the 6 per cent gold interest will be increased, he also adds to his capital more than 25 per cent, while to his income he adds more than 47½ per cent.

THE NEW-YORK CLIQUE.

The Assistant District-Attorneys—Ludlow-Street Jail—Who the Prisoners Are, and What They are in For.

The movement on the part of Assistant District-Attorney SULLIVAN to bring to the attention of the Court of Oyer and Terminer the large number of prisoners who are detained in Ludlow-street Prison for long periods of time without the remotest hope of ever complying with the formal terms of release, is generally regarded as well-timed, and the subject one which has long claimed judicial investigation. It is well known that through the contrivance of [illegible] of greedy creditors in matters connected, usually, with cases of summary arrest, [illegible] cases that cannot be brought within the letter of the exceptional statutes authorizing arrest for debt. By this means the spirit of the Constitution abolishing imprisonment for debt has been rendered a dead letter, and imbeciles are made more effectually a crime in the State of New-York, today, than in any country in Europe, whence the barbarism was borrowed originally.

Among the prisoners whose cases will probably be presented to the Court on Monday next, the following, with a few of the facts in each case, have been selected from the report of Warden TRACY to Sheriff BRENNAN:

SAMUEL OPPENHEIMER has been imprisoned since Jan. 5, 1870. He is held on ten different processes, representing in the aggregate half to the amount of $60,000. Unless Judge HARMAN interferes, the probabilities are that death alone will bring him a release.

JOHN C. MCQUHAE has been imprisoned since Oct. 21, 1871, under an unlimited arrestion for $5,000 or. He claims to be entirely insolvent, and has long been ill.

EDGAR BOND has been imprisoned since April 14, 1871. He claims that he could have been discharged at any time under the Insolvent law, but need he has had no money to fee counsel.

[illegible] GRAY has been imprisoned since April 20, 1871, under an order of arrest and default of $600 bail. He says he has no money, no friends, not even a chance of getting [illegible] a counsel with sufficient ability to get him out. He is a Southern [illegible] of the same name, and of [illegible] goods and debts to Southern [illegible].

[illegible] has been imprisoned since Feb. 24, 1871, under an order of arrest for $5,000 [illegible] He had goods in Chicago at the time of the fire, [illegible] requiring bail in the aggregate to the sum of $60,000. His affairs are in the hands of counsel.

MORRIS EISENSTEIN has been imprisoned since May 31, 1871, held under execution in three suits, amounting to $641 36. He thinks he ought to be released, but has not seen his counsel for months.

JEREMIAH O'DONOHUE has been imprisoned since May 11, 1871. He is held under an order of arrest in default of $200 bail. He has a wife and three children living in a cellar in Hudson-avenue, Brooklyn, who are destitute. The wife and children have been supported some time from the contributions of certain prisoners, who fear her rent. O'DONOHUE claims to be in for appropriating four sewing-machines, which he bought under what is known as the "no title until paid" system, and on which he only paid a part. The whole debt is $100, to earn which, however, Gidley affords JERRY a somewhat hopeless opportunity.

EDWARD F. HEWLETT has been imprisoned since June 13, 1871 under an order of arrest in default of $4,000 bail.

CHARLES A. BEHOMAN has been imprisoned since July 21, 1871, under six orders of arrest, in default of bail to the amount of $9,000. He says he left New-York to go to Germany, expecting to get certain funds there, but was disappointed. He returned to New-York and called upon his creditors to tell them of the condition of his affairs. His creditors immediately had him placed in Ludlow-street Jail, in the belief doubtless that he would be more successful in obtaining the money there than he had been in furthering.

THOMAS SLATTERLY has been imprisoned since July 25, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of $1,000 bail. The suit against him is one to recover damages by his landlord. He says he has judgments, neither goes bail now or hereafter.

GEORGE W. HANCOCK has been imprisoned since Aug. 12, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of $1,000 bail. He says he is a Texan stock-raiser, and if he could get home, he would raise the money to pay. Here he can do nothing; and Warden TRACY reports that he seems to tell the truth.

FRANK L. NORTON has been imprisoned since Aug. 12, 1871, under an order of arrest in default of $1,000 bail in a suit for debt. He has no counsel, no money, no friends, but a wife and three children. The Warden reports him as a respectable man, who could be discharged on proper application.

J. SILVIO DURANT has been imprisoned since Aug. 19, 1871, under an execution for $685.

GEORGE T. COBB has been imprisoned since Aug. 26, 1871, in default of $1,000 bail, in a suit by the Southern Express Company.

M. MARKHEIM has been imprisoned since Aug. 26, 1871.

THEODORE KUNOMAN has been imprisoned since Aug. 26, 1871, on a debt of $600, with a number of others similarly situated. He tells about the same amount, tells the same story of no money, no friends, no lawyer.

Warden TRACY further states in his report that not a few of these prisoners have been sadly imposed upon by sharp lawyers, who have pretended to be engaged in procuring their liberation. The prison is without the accommodations for the sick, and no provision has ever been made for their removal to any hospital where suitable treatment can be afforded. Mr. SULLIVAN is making a full investigation into all the cases brought to his notice, and doubtless in all such recommended for discharge, the Court will exercise a liberal construction of its authority in this respect.

AMERICAN BIBLE UNION.

The Twenty-second Anniversary—Second Day's Proceedings.

The second day's session of the American Bible Union commenced yesterday morning in the Oliver-street Church. The Secretary read a letter from Dr. GEORGE B. IDE, regretting his inability to be present, owing to the annual reports not being finished. Afterward other minor business was transacted, and the report of the Committee on the Revised Book of Proverbs, read by Dr. WALWORTH, adopted. The translators and revisers being present, stated that his whole aim in his labor was to adhere as closely to the Hebrew text as possible. No word was introduced, nor was any omitted, so far as he knew, in the translation. After a few remarks from Dr. EATON, late President of the Madison University, the session adjourned.

On the Union assembling in the afternoon, the reports from the Committee on the Circulation of Various Versions in the Language Translation; the Book of Psalms; the Italian Scriptures, all of which were severally discussed by the members and unanimously adopted. An interesting account was afterward read, showing what was being done among the freedmen of the South. Rev. HENRY EVANS also read a letter, which he had received from Rome, asking aid from the Society in the shape of Bibles and religious works. On which subject Rev. MY. VAN MESSENA, of the Howard Mission, delivered a stirring address, advocating that the works should be sent as soon as the Society's means would allow. On motion of the Secretary it was unanimously resolved that the audience tender the thanks of the Union be extended to the pastor and ladies of the Oliver-street Baptist Church, for the kindness and hospitality they had extended to the Union while in session. In the evening Rev. THOMAS ARMITAGE, D. D., delivered a discourse upon "Verbal Inspiration of the Scriptures." The speaker took for his text the second chapter of First Corinthians, fifth and tenth verses: "Not in words that man's wisdom teacheth, but the Holy Spirit teacheth." At the conclusion of the sermon the Union adjourned sine die.

The Murdered Swede—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

The body of the Swedish miner who was murdered last week, near Franklin Furnace in Sussex County, N. J., has been interred at Sparta, where his family reside. The name of the murdered man, which was not reported last week, was JOHN A. CARLSEN. He left Franklin Post-office on Monday of last week with about $40 in his pocket, which he was taking home to his family. He was never again seen alive, and his body was not found until three or four days afterward. It was discovered partially concealed in a hole in the woods, horribly mutilated. Justice MORRIS HOPPAUGH commenced an inquest which has at last been concluded by a verdict that the deceased came to his death "by reason of blows from some person or persons unknown to the jury." It was, however, proved that he was followed from the Post-office by a man who could not be identified, and it was also shown by the trail through the woods, and the blood spilled upon the fallen leaves, that after being murdered the body was dragged several hundred feet to the hole where it was finally buried. These facts showed that the murderer was probably acquainted intimately with the locality.

Considerable excitement still exists among the Swedish miners and laborers employed upon the Midland Railroad, and a vigorous search for the murderer is being prosecuted.

Masonic Celebration at New-Brunswick—Laying of a Corner-Stone of a New Temple.

New-Brunswick was yesterday full of Masonic societies from different parts of the State, congregated to witness the laying of the corner-stone of a new Masonic temple. Lodges from Newark, Trenton, Jersey City, Paterson, Elizabeth and other towns throughout the State were in the city dressed in regalia, and the streets of the city, damp and dreary though the day was, were crowded with spectators. Over 1,500 masons were in line of procession, led by four bands of music. The corner-stone of the Special Dispatch to the New-York Tribune.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26.—As predicted in my speech of last week, the Episcopal General Convention has not adopted the proposed ritual system, but has left the whole subject just as they found it. The debate has probably been one of the most full and able ever heard in any church council on this continent, and has been throughout characterized by the greatest courtesy, brotherly kindness and charity. There was great unanimity in condemning extreme ritualism, but many were opposed to some of the provisions of the proposed canon, and after a prolonged session, continuing till 1 o'clock this morning, it failed to pass for want of a constitutional majority of the clerical vote. The fear that individual members of the Convention have ordered from the publishers in New-York no copies of the forthcoming works of Judge HOFFMAN on the ritual law of the Church, and Rev. Dr. FULTON on the ancient symbols and canons, indicates that churchmen are fully determined to thoroughly investigate the whole subject.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Last night's session of the Episcopal Convention voted the canon on the Ritual, as reported by the Special Committee and passed by the House of Bishops, which was lost for want of a constitutional majority, the vote being taken by dioceses and orders. The result was as follows: Clerical—For 20; against, 15; divided, 1. Lay—For, 18; against, 14; divided, 2. The House was in session until 1 o'clock this morning.

The Convention reassembled at 9 o'clock this morning.

The Committee on Canons submitted a report on the organization of churches or congregations in foreign countries, recommending that the House concur with the House of Bishops in the amendments proposed by them in section 9, canon 8, title 3, with certain amendments by the Committee. The report was adopted and the resolutions of the House of Bishops, as amended, concurred in.

The amended canon prescribes the conditions under which a church or congregation in any foreign country, other than Great Britain or Ireland, and the Colonies and dependencies thereof, and not within the limits of any missionary Bishop of this Church, may organize such church organization to recognize and accede to the constitution, canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. The House then proceeded, with closed doors, in secret session, to consider the nomination of Rev. WM. HOBART HARE, of Pennsylvania, as Missionary Bishop at Cape Palmas, Africa. It is understood that the confirmation was opposed by the friends of the reverend gentleman, on the ground of the great value of his services in the present office of Secretary of the Foreign Committee of the Board of Missions, and the very serious injury which would be done to the foreign missionary work of the Church by his withdrawal from said office. And a message was adopted and sent to the House of Bishops requesting them to appoint a committee of conference upon the subject of the nomination. Committees were appointed by both Houses, and at 12½ P. M. Rev. Dr. HAIGHT, of New-York, from the Committee on Conference, reported to this House that the House of Bishops, after hearing the reasons of the House of Deputies, had decided to withdraw the name of Rev. WILLIAM HOBART HARE, and will not propose any further nomination. Provision is made by the canon for filling the vacancy of the House of Bishops.

The canon designed to prevent alienation of the Church buildings and property by those not in accordance with the doctrine and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church was taken up and discussed.

The message from the House of Bishops proposing a joint committee to determine and report the term of service to be taken as schools, colleges, Bible-classes, hospitals, college lectures and missionary meetings, was taken up, and after considerable discussion the whole subject was laid on the table.

The resolution reported by the Committee on Prayer-book that any deviation from the standard edition is unlawful, was taken up and discussed.

Rev. Dr. GOODWIN, of Pennsylvania, moved as a substitute that the insertion in the editions of the Book of Common Prayer of unauthorized italic letters, or any change of punctuation, or of any musical notation, or of any additional words whatever is unlawful"—which was adopted.

A memorial and resolutions relative to the division of the Diocese of Illinois into two dioceses was referred to the Committee on New Dioceses. The resolution of Judge BATTLE, of North Carolina, providing for the office of Suffragan Bishops, was indefinitely postponed. The resolutions offered by Mr. WELSH, of Philadelphia, providing, the House of Bishops concurring, that this House appoint a standing committee, of seven Bishops, composed of six laymen, to co-operate with the Board of Missions, in response to the request of the Chief Magistrate of the United States, asking the co-operation of this Church and other religious bodies in the Church, for promoting the civilization of the Indians, was taken up and passed.

The following message was received from the House of Bishops:

The House of Bishops informs the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies that it has adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies concurring, the following canon be adopted and enacted, to be numbered CANON —: The elevation of the Cup or Chalice in the Communion Office, so as to expose them to the view of the people as objects toward which adoration is to be made in or after the prayer of consecration, or in the act of administering them, or in carrying them to or from the communion table; and any gesture or action of supplying such adoration, and any ceremony not prescribed as part of the order of the administration of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, in the Book of Common Prayer, as the Invocation or Benediction of the Holy Communion by any Bishop or priest when no person receives with him; likewise the use at any administration of the Holy Communion of any hymn, prayer, or act of worship or respect other than those appointed in the authorized formularies of the Church, or under section 14 of canon 19, title 1, of the Digest, are hereby forbidden.

A motion to concur was debated.

After animated and somewhat excited discussion, a motion that the vote on concurring in the message from the House be taken at 4 o'clock, was carried in the affirmative, the vote being taken by clauses. The debate was then continued until 4 o'clock, when the vote on concurring in the resolution of the House of Bishops, proposing
